Mrs Boley Thomas and her husband appeared before the City Commission and made complaint against George Powell and Ike Turner, policemen, to the effect that they had failed to show proper respect due them as citizens and that they broke the door open by force against their will.
Such action growing out of an effort which resulted in the arrest of one Luther Renfro, brother of Mrs. Thomas, who was wanted on a felony charge.
They were listened to and were promised to give the matter consideration after they had considered both sides of the matter. The Mayor speaking for the City Commission expressed his regrets that such thing had hap-
