Mr. Clyde Stegall of Nacogdoches, Texas, appeared before the City Commission regarding delinquent Taxes due by the Mrs. Ella Stegall Estate to the City of Lufkin, Texas. He stated that he understood that suits were being filed for the collection of City Taxes, and that he understood that suit had been filed in this case. He stated that he did not want suit to proceed to the point of judgment being taken; that he had been trying to make arrangement for funds to pay the taxes and that he would continue to do so and would pay just as soon as it was possible. He refused to permit any rents now being paid for use of the property to be paid to the City and applied to the payment of the City Taxes. The City commission, after hearing his plea and considering the matter were unanimous in their opinion and it was so ordered that suit proceed and that the matter be reduced to judgment as soon as possible.
